

1953. He received the Purple Heart, the Army of Occupation Medal with Japan clasp, the Korean Service Medal with three Bronze Service Stars and the Presidential Unit Citation with one Gold Star-Navy.

On July 27, 2018, following the summit between President Donald Trump and North Korean Supreme Leader Kim Jong-un in June 2018, North Korea turned over 55 boxes, believed to contain the remains of American service members killed during the Korean War. The remains arrived at Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam, Hawaii on August 1, 2018, and were subsequently sent to the DPAA laboratory for identification. Boughman's remains were accounted for on April 20, 2020. His late mother's prayers for the next twenty-five years of her life was to ask God to "bring Ralph home with the other boys." Ralph's sister, Pansy Bourne, who turned 90 on September 29, 2021 continued those prayers until he came home.

Madam Speaker, Cpl. Ralph Sarratt Boughman, faithfully served his country and is finally home in his resting place in Union, South Carolina as of May 11, 2020. I proudly honor his legacy and service.

DEANNA MAYBERRY

HON. ED PERLMUTTER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 8, 2021

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Deanna Mayberry for receiving the Arvada Chamber of Commerce's Young Professional Award.

The Young Professional Award is given to an up-and-coming Arvada community member who has stood out for their work over the past year. As the associate director at BeyondHome, a non-profit aiming to help families become financially self-sufficient, Deanna works to educate and improve the quality of life of our community's most vulnerable. Over the course of her three years with BeyondHome, she has helped grow the organization and more than doubled the grant income in just one year, helping many low-income families transition from public assistance to purchasing their own homes. Deanna also volunteers with Reintegra and is an active member of the Arvada Chamber's Young Professionals group.

Congratulations to Deanna Mayberry for receiving the Young Professional Award and for her leadership and contributions to our community. I wish her the best of luck in her future endeavors.

HONORING CHRISTOPHER J. SMITH

HON. MIKE THOMPSON

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 8, 2021

Mr. THOMPSON of California. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Christopher J. Smith in celebration of his career as a reporter and columnist for the Press Democrat over the past 44 years.

Born in Pasadena, California, on May 4, 1954 to Don and Edythe Smith, Mr. Smith developed a love of journalism early on in his life working as a paperboy. He then became a manager for his hometown paper, the Riverside Press Enterprise. Mr. Smith then attained his bachelor's degree in journalism from San Jose State University in 1976, where he supported himself throughout school by working for the circulation department of the San Jose Mercury News on weekends. Mr. Smith's dedication and work ethic did not go unnoticed and helped him land a position as a reporter and columnist for the Press Democrat, where he still works as a freelance writer. Throughout his career, Mr. Smith has made significant contributions to the community through his writing and reporting on important community members, including centenarians, Pearl Harbor veterans, peace activists, and other individuals who have made a difference in the community. Mr. Smith is especially recognized for his contributions to the Press Democrat's coverage of the October 2017 wildfires that earned the newspaper a Pulitzer Prize. He continued to report on the lives of those affected by the fires for the next two years. "The surprise, VIP guests at the reborn Paradise Ridge Winery," and "Family of Angel the cow still struggling to rebuild, return to ranch nearly two years after Tubbs fire" are some of his notable articles.

In addition to his illustrious career, Mr. Smith has taken on many philanthropic projects within his community. He serves on the board of the Bridge to the Future, a community program that works with underprivileged youth ages 14 to 18 to sharpen their life skills and prepare them for the future. Mr. Smith was a member of the Exchange Club, a service organization that aids many local communities and counties in the United States. Further, he volunteers for Dining Out for Life, an annual fundraising event that raises money for community-based organizations that serve people living with or impacted by HIV. He also assists in coordinating the annual awards dinner given by the Boy Scouts of America every year. Mr. Smith is described by his family and community as generous, courageous, and resilient.

Madam Speaker, it is evident that Mr. Smith has worked tirelessly for the betterment of the Santa Rosa community through both his reporting and volunteer work. Therefore, it is fitting and proper that we honor him here today.

CELEBRATING HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH AND HONORING ORLANDO ROLÓN

HON. STEPHANIE N. MURPHY

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 8, 2021

Mrs. MURPHY of Florida. Madam Speaker, as part of our national celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month, I am paying tribute to Floridians who have made outstanding contributions to our community and our country.

Today I rise to honor the Chief of Police for the City of Orlando, Orlando Rolón.

Orlando, who was born in Puerto Rico, moved to Central Florida with his family in 1977.

In 1982, Orlando enlisted in the United States Marine Corps Reserve and served for four years. Following his military service, Orlando continued to build a life in Central Florida and worked in construction.

Orlando joined the Orlando Police Department in 1992. His commitment to fostering effective communication with the Spanish-speaking residents of Orlando led him to become the first Hispanic spokesperson in the history of OPD. Orlando has used his extensive experience and leadership abilities to bring people together, from traveling to Puerto Rico to assist with hurricane recovery efforts to providing crucial briefings in Spanish to the friends and families of victims of the Pulse nightclub shooting.

In 2018, Mayor Buddy Dyer appointed Orlando to become the Orlando Police Department's 39th Chief of Police. Chief Rolón is the first person of Hispanic heritage ever to hold this position.

As Chief and throughout his nearly 30 years of service to the Department, Orlando has dedicated himself to improving trust and effective communication between law enforcement and our community. He has a servant's heart and the City of Orlando is safer and stronger because of him.

I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring and celebrating Chief Orlando Rolón.

CELEBRATING 50 YEARS OF BIVOUAC

HON. DEBBIE DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 8, 2021

Mrs. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 50th anniversary of Bivouac, a family-owned small business located on bustling State Street in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Their 50 years spent outfitting the lives of those in our community is worthy of commendation.

Founded in 1970 by Mr. Ed Davidson while he was a student at the University of Iowa, he set up shop on Williams Street in Ann Arbor in 1971. It started off as an army surplus store catering to anti-war activists, but after the move to their current location on South State Street, the store has become an Ann Arbor mainstay for clothing and outdoor gear. With their expansive storefront in the historic Nickels Arcade, Bivouac is a familiar shopping destination for many University of Michigan students and the locals who call Ann Arbor home.

Bivouac goes beyond just making sales by contributing to causes with local impact and lending a hand to their neighbors. For their 50th anniversary, they are donating ten percent of their sales to the Huron River Watershed Council. They've also held charity shopping events for organizations such as Ozone House, a shelter for homeless youth based in Ypsilanti.

For years, Bivouac has outfitted hundreds. Former customers—now parents—bring their children back to the store when they begin school at the University of Michigan to get the coats and layers needed to survive a chilly Michigan winter. What started off as an idea of a University of Iowa senior has grown into an Ann Arbor icon and now since the partial retirement of Mr. Davidson, his son AJ Davidson now serves as President of the store and handles day-to-day operations.
